For those at home: Please have a Book of Common Prayer, and a candle or lamp available that you can light as we begin, as a sign of our unity in worship and as a reminder of the presence of the Holy Spirit. You are also invited to have bread and wine available for a communal meal after the Eucharistic Prayer.

The Gathering of Pledges

Please stand, as able.

As we sing this hymn, you are invited come forward and place your pledge on the altar. We will gather around the altar in unity of heart and voice as we present our gifts to God.

What Gifts Can We Bring

Unison

1 What gift can we bring, what present, what token?
2 Give thanks for the Past, for those who had vision,
3 Give thanks for To - mor - row, full of sur - pris - es,
4 This gift we now bring, this present, this token,

What words can con - vey it— the joy of this day?
who plant - ed and wa - tered so dreams could come true.
for know - ing what - ev - er To - mor - row may bring,
these words can con - vey it— the joy of this day!

When grate - ful we come, re - mem - bering, re - joic - ing,
Give thanks for the Now, for stud - y, for wor - ship,
God gives us his word that al - ways, for - ev - er,
When grate - ful we come, re - mem - bering, re - joic - ing,

what song can we of - fer in hon - or and praise?
for mis - sion that bids us turn prayer in - to deed.
we rest in his keep - ing and live in his love.
this song we now of - fer in hon - or and praise!

Summer 2022 Prayers of the People

Deacon: Friends in Christ, God invites us to hold the needs of our siblings as dear to us as our own needs. Loving our neighbors as ourselves, we offer our thanksgivings and our petitions on behalf of the church and the world.

silence

Leader: Those participating online may share prayers in the live-stream comments section and we will include them by reading them here in the room.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishop Greg; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

Pray for the Church.

The People may add their own petitions

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

The People may add their own petitions

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of God.

Pray that they may find and be found by God.

The People may add their own petitions

I ask your prayers of thanksgiving for birthdays, anniversaries and other happy events that we name now.

Pray in thanksgiving.

The People may add their own petitions

I ask your prayers for those who travel on land, on water, or in the air.

Pray for safe travels.

The People may add their own petitions

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble.

The People may add their own petitions

I ask your prayers for all those who have died or been buried from this church, and for all our loved ones whom we see no longer.

Pray for the departed.

The People may add their own petitions

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored.
Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

silence

Presider: Hear our prayers, God of power, and through the ministry of your Son
free us from the grip of the tomb, that we may desire you as the fullness of life and proclaim your saving deeds to all the world. Amen.
